UNIVERSITY GRANTS COMMISSION

XII PLAN GUIDELINES FOR THE SCHEME OF EPOCH MAKING SOCIAL THINKERS OF INDIA

1. Objectives

India has produced great thinkers and social leaders who, by their revolutionary and path breaking thoughts and actions, have left a lasting impact not only on India, but the world as a whole. They have developed indigenous ideas and have provided cultural and ethical identity to India. There is a great need to acquaint the teachers and students with their thinking and work and to involve them in studies, research and field work based extension service programmes of constructive work.

The Indian University system owes to the nation to conduct studies, research and extension programmes, which are pertinent and apply their ideas in the reconstruction of society on moral, ethical and spiritual foundations necessary for a non-violent social order.

Buddha emphasized on the age old concepts of compassion and ahimsa and tried to apply them for the formation of an egalitarian society. Gandhi gave a social dimension to the concept of peace and non-violence and demonstrated, both through his life and work, how it could be used as an instrument for fighting injustice at all levels. Nehru stood for the application of non-violence for resolving conflicts at the national, and more so at the international level, as well as modernization of society with emphasis on science and rationality. Ambedkar stressed on the empowerment of the oppressed as a means of their release from exploitation and injustice.

The ideas of these thinkers have an interrelated framework mutually supportive to each other and provide insights into the socio-economic and heartening to note that the performance of these centres in disseminating the ideas of these thinkers, has been satisfactory. In line of the interrelated framework of the ideas of these thinkers the UGC started the scheme of the Epoch Making Social Thinkers of India all sanctioned and encouraged the various centres in the universities / colleges during the XI plan period.

2. Proposals

The UGC extends financial assistance under this scheme to the university system for pursuing studies related to the thoughts and programmes of these great leaders. The assistance to the universities is on the basis of selection among the applications for the establishment and the work of the Centres of Buddhist, Gandhian, Nehru and Ambedkar studies with the above mentioned objectives. The programme of Buddhist Studies is funded wherever there is facility for learning the 'PALI' and/or SANSKRIT LANGUAGE. Where there is no such facility, it can be attached to another appropriate department such as History, Philosophy, Sociology and Ancient Indian Culture. In the examination of the proposal, the prior work of the department in the respective areas will be taken into consideration. Proposals with innovative ideas will be given considerable weightage.
